Let’s shout and make some noise!

Rock out! Whoa!

Bring Them to Me (5th grade)

Storytellers: Step back in time two thousand years, You’ll be surprised by what you hear;

Choir joins: Herod is reigning and he is complaining,

He’s angry as angry can be.

So let’s step back in history, come with me!

Herod: I am Herod the ruler, need I say anymore? I’m the king!

Choir Joins: A fact you can’t ignore.
Herod: The nerve of those wise men to stand here in my court and ask me where that Baby would be born.

Choir joins: They followed a star on their journey; They thought a star would lead to their king?

Herod: Ha ha! How dare they would stand in MY presence.

Someone go find them for me!

Choir: Herod calm down and count to ten, Herod Slow down, stop jumping ahead;

There’s really no reason, Your majesty, listen

Those wise men could not hurt a flea.

Herod: But They’ve got something up their sleeve,

Bring them to Me!

I’ll find those three wise men, they’ll be trembling with fear

I am the King!* I thought I made that clear

Choir joins: *He thought he made that clear!

Choir: But Herod, poor Herod was raging mad for sure

His royal highness was so insecure.

Herod: I told them to return to me, and that was my word, my decree.
I told them I wanted to “worship”.

Choir: But we know he’s lying through his teeth.

Herod calm down and count to ten, Herod Slow down, stop jumping ahead;

There’s really no reason, Your majesty, listen

Those wise men could not hurt a flea.

Herod: but they’re acting suspiciously, bring them to me!

Sherlock: Sherlock Watson is my name, *I’m from the F B I

Choir joins: *He’s from the F B I

Sherlock: One day Herod summoned me,

Choir joins: “Sherlock find those guys!”

Sherlock: Those wise men don’t seem very wise to disobey a king; I for one will do my best

Choir joins: to please his majesty.

Herod: Bring them to me!

Choir: Herod calm down and count to ten, Herod Slow down, stop jumping ahead;

There’s really no reason, Your majesty, listen

Those wise men could not hurt a flea.
Herod: I don’t rust men who travel in threes, Bring them to me!

Sherlock: Perhaps I was put on the earth for such a time as this, I could become a C E O of Herod’s Office;

I’ll go get those wise men, bring them to his majesty, I’ll be Herod’s right-hand man,

Just you wait and see!

Herod, I’m on it, * I’ll solve this case,*

Choir joins: He’ll solve this case,

Sherlock: Herod, I’ll find them,

Choir joins: No time to waste;

Choir: There’s really no reason, your majesty, listen

Sherlock joins: Those wise men won’t change history,

Herod Joins: (EVERYONE): Unless the Baby could actually be The King of Kings!

Herod: Bring them to me!

Take a Look Inside (4th grade)

Storytellers: Sherlock’s off to the library,

He’ll research the Baby’s ancestry;

Take a look at genealogy,
Choir joins: He’ll uncover His family tree.

Sherlock: He Couldn’t be of royalty if I can be so bold,

Choir joins: Unless He fulfilled the prophecy the scriptures had foretold.

He must search the scriptures line by line,
And investigate what he can find; Ev’ry scroll of ancient history,

Sherlock: I’ll solve this mystery you’ll see.

Choir: Take a look inside in God’s Holy Word.

Look at the facts and not what you’ve heard
If God said it we believe it, investigate and see

There’s proof in the scriptures

He’s Heaven’s Royalty.

Take a look inside in God’s Holy Word.

Look at the facts and not what you’ve heard If God said it we believe it, investigate and see

There’s proof in the scriptures

He’s Heaven’s Royalty.

Choir: Was He really from the line of David?

from the tribe of Father Abraham?

From the mystery of history He’ll find out

He was really born in Bethlehem.
Isaiah called Him a Mighty God,
He wrote He was the Prince of Peace;
Sherlock and Choir: Everlasting Father, Emmanuel!
Choir: That’s a King to me.
Sherlock: Wait a Minute!
Choir: Was He really from the line of David?
Sherlock: Yes!
Choir: from the tribe of Father Abraham?
Sherlock: Correct!
Choir: From the mystery of history He’ll find out
Sherlock: Wow!
Choir: He was really born in Bethlehem.
Sherlock: Oh, My!
Choir: Isaiah called Him a *Mighty God,
He wrote He was the *Prince of Peace;
Sherlock and Choir: Everlasting Father, Emmanuel! That’s a King to me.
Storyteller: This is the first time Sherlock thought He might be in just a little bit of trouble.
Sherlock: What have I gotten myself into? First rule of investigation: Find a source “in the know.” And I found one, but this one seems to be in the Holy Scripture!
So I ran a little background on this Baby and found out that He might be the King of the Jews! I may be in over my head!

Storyteller and Sherlock:

A wise man’s life for me.

Found the King, He’s my Everything

Lord, I’ll live for you, for I trust in You-
A wise man’s life for me.
They traveled from afar, lead by a shining star, They found the Child,
The King of Kings,
And even still today
Your light will guide the way,
To You, my Lord, the King of Kings.
I’m a truth seeker; I’m a believer, I want the world to see;
I’m a follower, I’m a worshiper,
I said a wise man’s life for me.
The wisest thing that you or I could ever do is to worship God
In Spirit and truth.
I said the wisest thing that you or I could ever do is to worship God in Spirit and truth.
They left a diff’rent way, they’d never be the same,
For they had met the King of kings.
And I won’t be the same, my life’s forever changes,
I too have met the King of kings.
I’ll be filled with joy and I will rejoice, I’ll bow before my King;

Innkeeper’s wife: If I knew then what I know now,
Things would be diff’rent somehow;
I’d gladly offer them the best that I could give,
If only I knew then what I know now.

Vinny: If I knew then what I know now,
Before His Manger bed I’d bow;
Just like the shepherds filled with wonder at this sight,
Both: the miracle of heaven born that night.

But as the Mighty King and Lord of all.

Child 1: And she gave birth to her firstborn, a Son. She wrapped Him in cloth and placed Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

Child 2: There were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks by night. And an angel of the Lord appeared to them.
Child 3: “Do not be afraid, I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all people.

Child 4: Today in the town of David a Savior has been born.

All: He is Christ, the Lord.”

Choir: whoever thought He would change my heart,

Forgive all my sin, make a brand new start;

And who would have thought that a lowly birth,

One day would reign over all the earth?

Innkeeper’s wife: If I knew then what I know now,

Vinny: Before His Manger bed I’d bow;

All: Just like the shepherds filled with wonder at this sight,
