

Linton Hall School Principal

EMILY
REID

Emily brings extensive experience in Catholic education, a strong foundation in instructional leadership, and a deep commitment to faith and service to the Linton Hall School community.

She holds a degree from Virginia Tech and a Master's in Curriculum and Instruction from Western Governors University. She taught at Linton Hall School for ten years and recently served as the Assistant Principal at St. Bernadette Catholic School.

“Linton Hall is a beautiful community steeped in faith and tradition,” said Mrs. Reid. “I am so blessed to be returning and truly grateful for the opportunity to serve as Principal.” Emily began her tenure as Linton Hall School Principal in July of 2025 and is a longtime educator and resident of Nokesville.
